Building on the Legacy

If you could ask God for one thing this year, and have Him answer that prayer, what would it be? Through a dream, the LORD appeared to Solomon, and said, "Ask for whatever you want me to give you". Wow! I'm not sure how you would have responded if the God of the entire universe asked you that, but I think I would have struggled with priorities.

We read in 1 Kings, that Solomon, a humble young man, recognized that even though he was the son of a great King, he still lacked wisdom. He asked God to give him a discerning heart to govern the people God had placed under his care. He realised that God had put him in a very unique position, but in order to be able to carry out the role properly, he needed God's help. God was pleased with Solomon's answer and He blessed him with many other things as well as great wisdom. Solomon's desire was to serve God and his people better. (1 Kings 3 v 1 – 15).

We at MMM also want to serve God and His people better. In order to carry this mission forward effectively we need Godly wisdom and discernment. In 2025 we celebrate 50 years of MMM working around the world, serving others. What a wonderful blessing.

Like Solomon was building on the legacy left by his father, we, are building on the legacy left by those who have served MMM over the last 50 years. The world we now live in is ever changing and we need God's immense wisdom to best navigate forward. We seek to be wise and to make the most of every God given opportunity, to continue blessing others through the very practical work of MMM.

Thank you for your faithful intercession on behalf of MMM. We are grateful for your support and your prayers.

God bless you as we enter into 2025.
