Joshua Ch 24 v 15 (NKJV)

"...as for me and my house, we will serve the Lord..."

Leaving a Godly Legacy

Have you ever considered the legacy you are going to leave? Not materially, but spiritually.

I've just been reading about (King) Jehoram in 2 Chronicles, chapter 21. In verse 20 it says "He was 32 years old when he became king. He reigned in Jerusalem eight years and, to no one's sorrow, departed". Wow, that's pretty harsh! He died an agonizing death (foretold by the prophet Elijah) around the age of 42. From a Godly perspective and from an earthly perspective, his life was a waste. As a king he had the perfect platform for a positive influence on those under his care, but he ignored God and chose evil.

When I was growing up, my parents had Joshua 24 v 15 displayed on the living room wall."but as for me and my house, we will serve the Lord" (NKJV). This verse underpinned the way my parents nurtured spiritual growth in each other and in each of us children. They set an amazing example of 'what' to do if you want to leave a Godly legacy. Late every evening my parents would kneel and pray together. They prayed consistently together until my father's death. Now my mum continues the legacy of prayer, faithfully praying for her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren and for many other people and missions also. She tells me her prayer list is very long!

As we grow older, we unfortunately cannot always do the things we used to do in our younger years. Perhaps you feel frustrated at your perceived lack of skills or your inability to speak freely to others about your faith. Despite your limitations and frailties, God can still use you. Prayer doesn't require a fit young body, an outgoing personality or special skills. Anyone at any stage of life can be involved in prayer ministry. Your involvement in building God's kingdom can continue through prayer no matter what stage of life you are in.

God bless
