Hi Everyone,

It is only days away from the MMMWACelebration Dinner, we pray that you have planned to be there. Our thanks go out to all those who have responded to our invite and even though some have indicated that they cannot join us on the night, they have noted their appreciation of the ministry of MMMAustralia and the blessings they have received through its ministry of Serving those who Serve. These few words have been a great encouragement to the MMMWA Team.

WA Happenings

Camp Wattle Grove - Do you have Tiling Skills?

MMMWA has shared in the ministry of Camp Wattle Grove for many years and completed a number of maintenance and building projects. Recently, Don called to ask for assistance to lay the tiles in an Amenities Block that has seen its last days. The project will be delivered in stages so the work will be spread over the next couple of months. If you have some experience or are willing to be directed by someone who does, why not raise your hand and give the MMM Centre a call and become part of this next team project.

Camp Wattle Grove is home of the Perth Keswick Convention whose purpose "is to equip believers to greater faithfulness to Jesus Christ, to proclaim the gospel to unbelievers, to affirm the Bible's authority over the life of every person, and to point people back to their local church for growth and accountability." <http://www.keswick.com.au/#/about-us>

Upcoming Projects

MMM Thailand will be hosting a team of 8 volunteers from Perth WA this month. They will arrive on Sept 27th to begin a 2 week project. The project will be at Baan Naam Jai finishing off a building which will be used as a hospice for women suffering from HIV. The project will consist of repairs to an outside roof which leaks very badly in the wet season, maintenance and generally finishing off ready for the official opening early Dec.

MMM Thailand has done a number of projects at Baan Naam Jai (Home of the Open Heart) and feel very blessed to be assisting in the finishing off of a very large project which has taken some 10 years to complete.

Anthony and Siska Hocking will arrive earlier to organize and get materials needed to complete the project and would appreciate your prayer for safety on the job and whilst travelling. MMMWA has made a commitment to support and encourage this arm of MMMAustralia's ministry and the team will include the VanDerKooji family so we can expect a full story on their return. The last MMM Enews had an article on Baan Naam Jai if you are interested.

Prayer Groups

MMM in WA values the encouragement we receive from those who regularly pray for the work of MMM both here in Western Australia, Nationally and Internationally. If you require help or assistance with prayer notes or information updates please feel free to contact the WA Centre. If you are part of a group that meets for prayer or would like to begin a group that would commit to praying for the ministry of MMM Australia we would like to hear from you.

Prayer Groups meet at the MMM Centre and North of the River. Contact the MMM WA Centre for details. Become a "Prayer Warrior" for MMM Australia. A Blessing to all those who continue to uphold us in your daily prayer life.
